

Applying for a bursary

A number of bursaries will be available to give financial support to those wishing to attend the Sof-Vokh. Unfortunately, the limited finances of the Sof-Vokh are such that we are unable to cover the full cost of the weekend with a bursary. We also cannot guarantee that we will be able to give bursaries to all who ask or for the full amount asked for.

We will have two application rounds:

- The deadline for the first round is 31st March.
- The deadline for the second round is 19th May.

A small sub-group of the organising committee will consider applications for bursaries in confidence. We will aim to let applicants know whether or not they have been successful within 10 days of the deadline for each round.

For those applying in the first round, so long as you get your application in by 31st March, we will hold the early bird price until we give you an answer.

The bursary sub-committee looks forward to hearing from you.

Please complete the application on page 2-3, save this file and email it to svbursaries@yiddishcafe.com.

- 4) Are you willing to make a contribution to the running of the Sof-Vokh, for example by presenting a session or activity, or offering technical or other practical support?
